John 3:3 Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

Jesus teaches Nicodemus that one must be born again to enter the Kingdom of God.

1: What does it mean to be born again?

2: Living a life of faith and repentance through Jesus Christ.

1: Acts 2:37-38 - When the people heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and the other apostles, "Brothers, what shall we do?" Peter replied, "Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins. And you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

2: 1 John 5:1-5 - Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ is born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves his child as well. This is how we know that we love the children of God: by loving God and carrying out his commands. In fact, this is love for God: to keep his commands. And his commands are not burdensome, foreveryone born of God overcomes the world. This is the victory that has overcome the world, even our faith. Who is it that overcomes the world? Only the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God.

John 3:4 Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

Nicodemus asked Jesus how a man can be born again when he is old.

John 3:11 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness.

Jesus is speaking to Nicodemus, emphasizing the importance of believing in the testimony of Jesus and the Father.

1: Believe in the testimony of Jesus and the Father, for only through them will you receive eternal life.

2: Receive the words of Jesus and the Father, for they are the path to salvation and eternal life.

1: Romans 10:9 - That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

2: John 1:12 - But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name.

tell you of heavenly things?

Jesus asks his audience how they can believe in the heavenly things he speaks of if they do not believe in the earthly things he has already told them.

1. Have Faith in God's Word

2. Believe in the Lord and His Promises

No one has ascended to heaven except Jesus, who came down from heaven.

1. The Uniqueness of Jesus: Understanding the Truth that Jesus is the Only Way to Heaven

2. Jesus is the Only Way to Heaven: Encouraging Faith in His Promise

1. John 14:6 - Jesus said to him, “I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.

2. John 10:30 - I and the Father are one.

John 3:14 And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up:

The passage speaks of the need to lift up the Son of Man, just as Moses had lifted up the serpent in the wilderness.

1. The importance of humbly lifting up the Son of Man.

2. The symbolism of lifting up the serpent in the wilderness.

1. Numbers 21:8-9 – “And the Lord said unto Moses, Make thee a fiery serpent, and set it upon a pole: and it shall come to pass, that every one that is bitten, when he looketh upon it, shall live. And Moses made a serpent of brass, and put it upon a pole, and it came to pass, that if a serpent had bitten any man, when he beheld the serpent of brass, he lived.”

2. Romans 6:23, “For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.”

John 3:16 For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

God loves the world so much that He gave His only Son, Jesus Christ, so that whoever believes in Him will not perish but will have eternal life.

1. The Unfathomable Love of God

2. The Gift of Eternal Life

1. 1 John 4:8-10 – “Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins."

2. Romans 5:8-10 – "But God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. Since, therefore, we have now been justified by his blood, much more shall we be saved by him from the wrath of God. For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, now that we are reconciled, shall we be saved by his life."

John 3:17 For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

God sent His Son to save the world, not condemn it.

1: Rejoice: Christ Came to Save Us, Not Condemn Us

2: God's Love for Us: He Sent His Son to Save us

1: Romans 5:8 - But God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

2: Ephesians 2:4-5 - But God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which he loved us, even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ.

John 3:18 He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

Believers are not condemned, but those who do not believe are already condemned for not believing in the name of Jesus.

1. Faith in Jesus is the Pathway to Salvation

2. Rejecting Jesus Leads to Condemnation

1. Romans 10:9 - "If you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved."

2. Hebrews 11:6 - “And without faith it is impossible to please God, because anyone who comes to him must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who earnestly seek him.”

John 3:19 And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

Men reject the truth of God and choose darkness instead, because of their evil deeds.

1. Sin leads to darkness and alienation from God

2. God's light reveals our sin and brings redemption

1. Romans 1:18-20 - For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who suppress the truth in unrighteousness, 19 because what may be known of God is manifest in them, for God has shown it to them. 20 For since the creation of the world His invisible attributes are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even His eternal power and Godhead, so that they are without excuse.

2. Ephesians 5:8-14 - For you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Walk as children of light 9 (for the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness, righteousness, and truth), 10 finding out what is acceptable to the Lord. 11 And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather expose them. 12 For it is shameful even to speak of those things which are done by them in secret. 13 But all things that are exposed are made manifest by the light, for whatever makes manifest is light. 14 Therefore He says: “Awake, you who sleep, Arise from the dead, And Christ will give you light.”

John 3:20 For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved.

Everyone who does evil hates the light and avoids it to hide their wrongdoings.

1: Let us not let our sins keep us away from the light but instead accept it and change our ways.

2: We may try to hide our wrongdoings, but the light of truth will always reveal them.

1: Ephesians 5:13-14 - “But when anything is exposed by the light, it becomes visible, for anything that becomes visible is light.”

2: James 1:22-25 - “Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says. Anyone who listens to the word but does not do what it says is like someone who looks at his face in a mirror and, after looking at himself, goes away and immediately forgets what he looks like. But whoever looks intently into the perfect law that gives freedom, and continues in it—not forgetting what they have heard, but doing it—they will be blessed in what they do.”

John 3:21 But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

John 3:21 encourages people to do truth and come to the light so their deeds can be seen as being done in God.

1: We are all called to do what is right, and when we do, God will shine his light upon us and show the world our good works.

2: We should not be afraid of the light, but instead embrace it, knowing that God is glorifying us for our good works.

1: Matthew 5:16 - “Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.”

2: Ephesians 5:8-10 - “For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light: (For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth;) Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord.”

John baptized in Aenon near Salim due to the abundance of water.

1: God provides us with the resources we need for His work.

2: We should be willing to go where God leads us to fulfill His will.

2: Romans 8:28 - And we know that God causes everything to work together for the good of those who love God and are called according to his purpose for them.

John 3:25 Then there arose a question between some of John's disciples and the Jews about purifying.

John's disciples were asking the Jews questions about purification.

1: We can gain clarity through respectful dialogue with those with different perspectives.

2: We should approach conversations with humility, knowing that we may not have all the answers.

1: James 1:5 - If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask God, who gives generously to all without reproach, and it will be given him.

2: Colossians 2:8 - See to it that no one takes you captive by philosophy and empty deceit, according to human tradition, according to the elemental spirits of the world, and not according to Christ.

John 3:27 John answered and said, A man can receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven.

John emphasizes the importance of relying on God's grace for all things.

2: To receive the blessings of God, we must acknowledge our reliance on Him and accept His grace.

2: We must follow the example of John the Baptist, who humbly accepted his role of preparation for the coming of the Messiah.

1: Philippians 2:3-5 - "Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit. Rather, in humility value others above yourselves, not looking to your own interests but each of you to the interests of the others. In your relationships with one another, have the same mindset as Christ Jesus."

Convicted by their own consciences, they left one by one until only Jesus was left with woman standing there whom He released saying 'Neither do I condemn you go now leave your life sin.' And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age."

2. Acts 1:1-8 - In the first book, O Theophilus, I have dealt with all that Jesus began to do and teach, until the day when he was taken up, after he had given commands through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen. Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth."

1. Recognize that knowledge and truth are the foundation of freedom.

2. Embrace knowledge and truth as a path to a free life.

1. Proverbs 3:13-14 - “Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, and the man that getteth understanding. For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold.”

2. Philippians 4:8 - “Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.”

John 8:33 They answered him, We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?

The Jews claim that they have never been in bondage to any man, but Jesus disagrees.

The people of Abraham's lineage were seeking to kill Jesus because they rejected His word.

1: We must be humble to accept the truth of Jesus' Word despite our heritage.

2: We must not use our heritage as an excuse to reject the teachings of Jesus.

1: Romans 2:17-29 - The Jews were reminded that their physical descent from Abraham was not enough to make them righteous before God.

2: Galatians 6:15-16 - Paul reminds the Galatians that it is not their heritage that counts, but rather the new creation in Christ.

John 8:40 But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham.

Jesus is being persecuted for speaking the truth of what he heard from God, which Abraham had not done.

1. The Danger of Speaking the Truth

2. Persecution for Doing What is Right

1. John 15:18-21 - “If the world hates you, keep in mind that it hated me first. If you belonged to the world, it would love you as its own. As it is, you do not belong to the world, but I have chosen you out of the world. That is why the world hates you. Remember what I told you: ‘A servant is not greater than his master.’ If they persecuted me, they will persecute you also. If they obeyed my teaching, they will obey yours also. They will treat you this way because of my name, for they do not know the one who sent me.”

2. Luke 6:22-23 - “Blessed are you when people hate you, when they exclude you and insult you and reject your name as evil, because of the Son of Man. Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, because great is your reward in heaven. For that is how their ancestors treated the prophets.”

John 8:42 Jesus said unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I proceeded forth and came from God; neither came I of myself, but he sent me.

Jesus is asking those who doubt His identity to consider that if God were truly their Father, they would not doubt Him.

1: We are to love and trust in Jesus, for He comes from God and is sent by Him.

2: We should not be doubtful of Jesus and His identity, as doing so would be a lack of faith in God, our Father.

1: Matthew 7:21-23 "Not everyone who says to me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. Away from me, you evildoers!’"

2: 1 John 4:7-8 "Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God. Whoever does not love does not know God, because God is love."

John 9 is the ninth chapter of the Gospel of John, which recounts the healing of a man born blind by Jesus and the subsequent controversy that arises among religious leaders.

1st Paragraph: The chapter begins with Jesus encountering a man who was blind from birth (John 9:1-7). His disciples inquire about the cause of his blindness, asking if it was due to his own sin or his parents' sin. Jesus responds that neither was responsible, but rather this happened so that God's works might be displayed in him. Jesus then spits on the ground, makes mud with His saliva, and applies it to the man's eyes. He instructs him to wash in the pool of Siloam. The man obeys and miraculously receives his sight.

2nd Paragraph: The healing causes a stir among those who knew the formerly blind man (John 9:8-34). Some are amazed at his newfound sight while others question whether he is indeed the same person. The Pharisees—the religious leaders—summon both the healed man and his parents for questioning. They inquire about how he received his sight on the Sabbath, considering it a violation of their strict interpretation of Sabbath laws. The healed man defends Jesus as a prophet sent from God but admits he does not know much more about Him.

3rd Paragraph: The chapter concludes with Jesus seeking out and revealing Himself to the healed man (John 9:35-41). Upon learning that religious leaders had cast out the once-blind man from their midst, Jesus finds him and asks if he believes in Him as "the Son of Man." The healed man responds affirmatively and worships Him. In response, Jesus declares that He came into this world for judgment—to reveal those who are spiritually blind—and for salvation—to open their eyes to spiritual truth. Some Pharisees overhear this exchange and question whether they too are spiritually blind due to their resistance to Jesus' teachings.

In summary,

Chapter nine of John recounts the healing of a man born blind by Jesus, the subsequent controversy among religious leaders, and Jesus' revelation of Himself as the Son of Man.

Jesus heals the blind man using saliva and instructs him to wash in a pool, restoring his sight. This causes division among those who knew him, leading to questioning by Pharisees about the Sabbath violation.

The healed man defends Jesus as a prophet and later encounters Him again. He acknowledges Jesus as the Son of Man and worships Him. Jesus explains His purpose for judgment and salvation while challenging some Pharisees' spiritual blindness. This chapter highlights Jesus' miraculous power, His confrontation with religious legalism, and His role as both judge and Savior.

John 9:2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?

The disciples of Jesus asked him if the man who was born blind had done something wrong, or if it was the fault of his parents.

1. God uses suffering to bring about good in our lives.

2. Our suffering does not indicate God's displeasure with us.

1. Romans 8:28 "And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose."

2. 2 Corinthians 12:7-10 "Therefore, in order to keep me from becoming conceited, I was given a thorn in my flesh, a messenger of Satan, to torment me. Three times I pleaded with the Lord to take it away from me. But he said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness.” Therefore I will boast all the more gladly about my weaknesses, so that Christ’s power may rest on me. That is why, for Christ’s sake, I delight in weaknesses, in insults, in hardships, in persecutions, in difficulties. For when I am weak, then I am strong.”

John 9:3 Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the works of God should be made manifest in him.

This passage reveals that Jesus saw no sin in the man born blind, nor in his parents, but that the miraculous works of God could be seen in the healing of the man.

1. The Miraculous Power of God - How the works of God are shown through miracles such as the healing of the man born blind.

2. No Condemnation - How Jesus saw no sin in the man or his parents, and how we too are not condemned by God.

1. Romans 8:1-2 - There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death.

2. Isaiah 53:4-5 - Surely he has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows; yet we esteemed him stricken, smitten by God, and afflicted. But he was pierced for our transgressions; he was crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with his wounds we are healed.

John 9:4 I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work.

2. Philippians 2:14-16 - “Do all things without grumbling or disputing, that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, holding fast to the word of life, so that in the day of Christ I may be proud that I did not run in vain or labor in vain.”

John 9:6 When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay,

Jesus used his saliva and the dust of the ground to heal the man who was blind.

1: Even in the most difficult times, Jesus can provide us with the healing we need.

2: God can use anything to perform a miracle, even the most basic everyday items.

1: Mark 8:22-25 - Jesus heals a blind man near Bethsaida by touching his eyes.

2. Matthew 15:30-31 - And great multitudes came unto him, having with them those that were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and cast them down at Jesus’ feet; and he healed them: Insomuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb to speak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blind to see: and they glorified the God of Israel.

John 9:9 Some said, This is he: others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he.

This passage reveals Jesus' identity as He affirms his own identity.

1. Jesus knows who He is and He wants us to know too

2. How our identity can be found in Jesus

1. Romans 8:38-39 - For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

2. Ephesians 1:17-21 - that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and of revelation in the knowledge of him, having the eyes of your hearts enlightened, that you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power toward us who believe, according to the working of his great might that he worked in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the one to come.

John 9:10 Therefore said they unto him, How were thine eyes opened?

He opened his eyes to the truth of Jesus Christ: Jesus is the Light of the world.

1: Jesus is the Light that shines in darkness and brings us all to salvation.

2: We must open our eyes to the truth of Jesus Christ and embrace His light.

Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

John 9:11 He answered and said, A man that is called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight.

The man was healed of his blindness by Jesus, who made clay and anointed his eyes.

1. The Miracles of Jesus: A Call to Believe

2. Jesus' Healing Power: Receive Sight and See the Truth

1. Isaiah 35:5-6 - "Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf unstopped; then shall the lame man leap like a deer, and the tongue of the mute sing for joy."

2. Matthew 11:5 - "The blind receive their sight and the lame walk, lepers are cleansed and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them."

John 9:12 Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I know not.

The Pharisees asked Jesus where the healed blind man was, but Jesus said he did not know.

1: God does not always have to be in control of every situation. Sometimes He allows us to make our own decisions and paths.

2: Even when we don't understand God's plan, He is still in control and working for our ultimate good.

1: Romans 8:28 "And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose."

2: Proverbs 3:5 “Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.”

John 9:13 They brought to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind.

The Pharisees were presented with a man who had been blind in the past.

1. God's Healing: A Testimony of Faith

2. In Jesus We Find Restoration

1. Isaiah 61:1 - “The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound;

2. Mark 10:46-52 - “And they came to Jericho: and as he went out of Jericho with his disciples and a great number of people, blind Bartimaeus, the son of Timaeus, sat by the highway side begging. And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy on me.... And Jesus said unto him, Go thy way; thy faith hath made thee whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus in the way.”

John 9:14 And it was the sabbath day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

The passage details the account of Jesus healing a man born blind on the Sabbath day.

1. God's Mercy is Unconditional

2. Healing Through Faith

1. Matthew 12:9-14 - Jesus defends his disciples for picking grain on the Sabbath

2. Luke 6:6-11 - Jesus heals the sick on the Sabbath day, despite criticism from the Pharisees

John 9:15 Then again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see.

Jesus healed a blind man through a simple act of clay and water.

1: We can experience physical and spiritual healing when we humbly submit to God's plan.

2: Faith in Jesus brings healing and restoration.

1: James 5:15 "And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him."

2: Isaiah 53:5 "But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed."

John 9:16 Therefore said some of the Pharisees, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath day. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? And there was a division among them.

This passage shows that the Pharisees were divided in their opinion of Jesus when they saw the miracles he performed on the Sabbath day.

1: We should celebrate God's power, no matter the day.

2: We should not be quick to judge the actions of others.

1: Matthew 7:1-5 - "Judge not, that you be not judged. For with the judgment you pronounce you will be judged, and with the measure you use it will be measured to you."

2: 1 Corinthians 13:4-7 - "Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth."

John 9:17 They say unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, He is a prophet.

The blind man attested to the fact that Jesus is a prophet.

1. What testimony can we give about Jesus?

2. How can we recognize the work of God?

1. Deuteronomy 18:15-22 (The Lord your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among you, from your brothers—it is to him you shall listen—)

2. Hebrews 1:1-2 (Long ago, at many times and in many ways, God spoke to our fathers by the prophets, but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son...)

John 9:18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.

John 9:18 is about the disbelief of the Jews concerning the man who was healed from blindness.

1. God can work miracles in our lives, even when we cannot see it.

2. Our faith should not be dependent on what is seen, but instead be rooted in the unseen.

1. John 20:29 "Jesus said to him, “Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed.”

2. Romans 4:17-21 “As it is written, “I have made you the father of many nations”—in the presence of the God in whom he believed, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist. In hope he believed against hope, that he should become the father of many nations, as he had been told, “So shall your offspring be.” He did not weaken in faith when he considered his own body, which was as good as dead (since he was about a hundred years old), or when he considered the barrenness of Sarah’s womb. No unbelief made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God, fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised.”

John 9:19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see?

The people asked the parents of a blind man how he could now see.

1. How Faith Can Open Our Eyes

2. Seeing God's Miracles in Everyday Life

1. Matthew 9:27-31 (The healing of two blind men)

2. John 11:38-44 (The raising of Lazarus from the dead)

John 9:20 His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:

John's parents declared their faith in the miraculous healing of their son, despite his obvious blindness.

1: Let us trust in God's miracles, even if we cannot see them with our own eyes.

2: We must accept the will of God with faith, even when our eyes fail to see.

1: Jeremiah 17:7-8 - "Blessed is the man who trusts in the Lord, whose trust is the Lord. He is like a tree planted by water, that sends out its roots by the stream, and does not fear when heat comes, for its leaves remain green, and is not anxious in the year of drought, for it does not cease to bear fruit."

2: Hebrews 11:1 - "Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen."

John 9:21 But by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age; ask him: he shall speak for himself.

John 9:21 teaches us to trust in God when our questions are unanswered and to respect the autonomy of others.

1. God's Mystery: Trusting even when we don't understand

2. The Respect of Autonomy: Honoring the decisions of others

1. Isaiah 55:8-9 “For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, declares the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts.”

2. Isaiah 40:28-29 “Have you not known? Have you not heard? The Lord is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He does not faint or grow weary; his understanding is unsearchable. He gives power to the faint, and to him who has no might he increases strength.”

John 9:22 These words spake his parents, because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue.

This passage shows the fear of the Jewish people as they believed that confessing Christ would lead to being put out of the synagogue.

1. The Fear of Man is a Trap

2. Stand Up For What You Believe

1. Proverbs 29:25 - The fear of man brings a snare, but whoever trusts in the Lord shall be safe.

2. Romans 10:9-10 - That if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

John 9:23 Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him.

Passage: In John 9, Jesus heals a man who was born blind. His neighbors, acquaintances, and even his parents were questioned about who had committed this "unlawful" act of healing on the Sabbath. However, they could not answer who had done the healing because they did not know. When Jesus' disciples asked the man who healed him, he said it was Jesus. His parents, however, remained silent, for they feared the Jewish leaders. Finally, they said, "He is of age; ask him."

1. The Power of Jesus to Heal: How Jesus was able to perform a miraculous healing on a man born blind and the faith it required

2. The Courage of Jesus' Followers: How the man born blind and his parents displayed courage in following Jesus even when faced with opposition

1. Matthew 17:20 - "He said to them, “Because of your little faith. For truly, I say to you, if you have faith like a grain of mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move, and nothing will be impossible for you.”

2. John 10:27-28 - "My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand."

John 9:24 Then again called they the man that was blind, and said unto him, Give God the praise: we know that this man is a sinner.

The religious authorities asked the blind man to give God the praise, believing the man Jesus was a sinner.

1: We must recognize the power of God in the work of Jesus, even when those around us do not.

2: We must celebrate the miracles of Jesus, even when others fail to recognize them.

1: Isaiah 29:18-19 - On that day the deaf shall hear the words of a book, and out of their gloom and darkness the eyes of the blind shall see. The meek shall obtain fresh joy in the Lord, and the poor among mankind shall exult in the Holy One of Israel.

2: Matthew 11:5 - The blind receive their sight and the lame walk, lepers are cleansed and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised up, and the poor have good news preached to them.

John 9:25 He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see.

A blind man is healed by Jesus and explains that he is not sure if the healer is a sinner or not, but he does know that he used to be blind, but now he can see.

1. The Power of Jesus to Heal and Restore

2. The Blind Man's Testimony of Faith

1. Matthew 9:27-31 - Jesus heals two blind men

2. Psalm 146:8 - The Lord opens the eyes of the blind

John 9:26 Then said they to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?

Healing of Blind Man: Jesus showed his divine power by miraculously healing a blind man.

1. God is capable of doing the impossible

2. Miracles are a reminder of God's power

1. Romans 8:28 - And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose.

2. Exodus 15:11 - Who is like you, O Lord, among the gods? Who is like you, majestic in holiness, awesome in glorious deeds, doing wonders?

John 9:27 He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ye hear it again? will ye also be his disciples?

A man born blind was asked by the Pharisees if he was a disciple of Jesus, to which he replied asking why they would need to hear the answer again if they had already heard it.

1. The Power of Jesus: Despite being born blind and facing ridicule from the Pharisees, this man chose to stand up for his faith in Jesus.

2. Faith in the Face of Adversity: This man's faith in Jesus was unwavering despite the opposition of the Pharisees.

1. Hebrews 11:1 - "Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen."

2. Matthew 16:24 - "Then Jesus told his disciples, “If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me."

John 9:28 Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are Moses' disciples.

John 9:28 summarizes Jesus' disciples being reviled by other people who claimed to be Moses' disciples.

1. We can learn from Jesus' example of humility and grace when dealing with opposition.

2. Our faith should be commended rather than criticized.

1. Matthew 5:11-12 “Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.”

2. James 1:2-4 “My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations; Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience. But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.”

John 9:29 We know that God spake unto Moses: as for this fellow, we know not from whence he is.

The people of the time questioned who Jesus was because they knew that God spoke to Moses, but they did not know where Jesus came from.

1. Jesus is greater than Moses: God spoke to Moses, but Jesus was a special example of God's power.

2. All are welcome in God's kingdom: No matter where we come from, God welcomes us with open arms.

1. Matthew 11:11-12 "Truly, I say to you, among those born of women there has arisen no one greater than John the Baptist. Yet the one who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he."

2. Romans 8:38-39 "For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord."

John 9:30 The man answered and said unto them, Why herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.

This passage highlights a miracle in which a man born blind was healed by Jesus. He is amazed that Jesus healed him, even though he did not know his identity.

1: Jesus is a Healer and His healing is available to all, regardless of their identity.

2: Jesus is the source of miraculous healing and those who accept His healing are transformed.

1: Matthew 11:5 - The blind receive sight, the lame walk, those who have leprosy are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the good news is proclaimed to the poor.

2: Isaiah 53:5 - But he was pierced for our transgressions, he was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was on him, and by his wounds we are healed.

John 9:31 Now we know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth.

God listens to those who are true worshippers of Him and obey His will.

1: True Worship: The Heart of Obedience

2: The Power of Worship: How to Hear God's Voice

1: James 4:7-10, Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

2: Colossians 3:17, And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.

John 9:32 Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind.

The passage is about a man who was born blind and his eyes were opened.

1. God's Miracles and Gifts of Grace

2. The Power of Faith

1. Matthew 19:26, "But Jesus looked at them and said to them, “With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.”

2. Psalm 146:8, “The Lord opens the eyes of the blind; The Lord raises those who are bowed down; The Lord loves the righteous.”

John 9:33 If this man were not of God, he could do nothing.

This verse speaks of Jesus' divine authority and power, affirming that He could only do what He does because He is from God.

1. Jesus: The Source of All Authority and Power

2. The Miraculous Works of Christ: Testimony of His Divinity

1. John 14:10-11 - "Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own authority, but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me, or else believe on account of the works themselves.

2. Colossians 2:9-10 - For in him the whole fullness of deity dwells bodily, and you have been filled in him, who is the head of all rule and authority.

John 9:34 They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him out.

The religious leaders were so full of pride and prejudice that they cast out a blind man just because he taught them something.

1: Pride and Prejudice have no place in the Kingdom of God.

2: The Lord calls us to be humble and open to learning from others.

1: James 4:6: “But he gives more grace. Therefore it says, ‘God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble.’”

2: Luke 18:14: “I tell you, this man went down to his house justified, rather than the other. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted.”

John 9:35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said unto him, Dost thou believe on the Son of God?

Jesus shows mercy to a man who was cast out by his own people and offers him the chance to believe in Him.

1: Jesus's Mercy is Unconditional

2: Believe in the Son of God

1: Luke 6:36 - "Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful."

2: 1 John 5:10-12 - "Whoever believes in the Son of God has the testimony in himself; whoever does not believe God has made Him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has given concerning His Son."

John 9:36 He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him?

John 9:36 summarises the passage as a question posed by the blind man, asking who Jesus is that he may believe in him.

1. The Question of Faith: How do we know we can believe in Jesus?

2. Uncovering the Truth: Seeking out the Promises of a Saviour

1. Romans 10:17 - Faith comes by hearing and hearing by the word of God.

2. 1 John 5:13 - These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life.

John 9:37 And Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and it is he that talketh with thee.

This passage reveals that Jesus identified himself to a man born blind, and confirmed his identity as the one speaking to him.

1. The Power of Personal Identity: How Knowing Who We Are Helps Us Overcome Blindness

2. Jesus Reveals His Identity: Recognizing and Embracing Our True Selves

1. Romans 8:37-39 - No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

2. Exodus 33:14 - The Lord replied, “My Presence will go with you, and I will give you rest.”

John 9:38 And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him.

John demonstrates faith by worshipping Jesus in this verse.

1. The Power of Faith - Exploring the power of faith through the example of John worshipping Jesus.

2. Growing in Faith - Learning how we can grow in faith through the example of John worshipping Jesus.

1. Hebrews 11:1 - "Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen."

2. Romans 10:17 - "So faith comes from what is heard, and what is heard comes through the message about Christ."

John 9:39 And Jesus said, For judgment I am come into this world, that they which see not might see; and that they which see might be made blind.

Jesus came to the world to judge those who are blinded by sin and to open the eyes of those who are "blind".

1: Jesus is the Light of the World.

2: God's Judgment is Just.

1: Isaiah 9:2 - The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.

2: John 12:46 - I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness.

John 9:40 And some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these words, and said unto him, Are we blind also?

Jesus was teaching the Pharisees about spiritual blindness and they reacted by asking if they too were blind.

1. The Danger of Spiritual Blindness

2. A Call to Self-Reflection

1. Isaiah 6:9-10 - Understand with their heart and turn to the Lord that He may heal them.

2. Matthew 13:13-15 - Jesus' parable of the sower and those who have eyes but do not see.

John 9:41 Jesus said unto them, If ye were blind, ye should have no sin: but now ye say, We see; therefore your sin remaineth.

Jesus challenges the Pharisees, who say they can see, by pointing out that if they were blind, they would have no sin.

1. "The Blindness of Pride" - Exploring how pride can prevent us from seeing the truth, and how humility can help us to grow in our faith.

2. "Seeing with Spiritual Eyes" - Examining the importance of discerning the truth with the eyes of faith, not simply our physical sight.

1. James 4:6 - “God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble.”

2. Proverbs 3:5-6 - “Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths.”

John 10 recounts Jesus' metaphor of the Good Shepherd, His discourse about His relationship with His followers, and the continued division over His identity.

1st Paragraph: The chapter begins with Jesus introducing Himself as both the gate for the sheep and the good shepherd. He criticizes those who enter the sheep pen by any other way but the gate as thieves and robbers. The sheep follow Him because they recognize His voice but will never follow a stranger. As a good shepherd, He knows His sheep and lays down his life for them willingly unlike hired hand who abandons sheep at sight of wolf (John 10:1-18).

2nd Paragraph: This teaching caused division among Jews some saying he was demon-possessed mad others questioning how can demon open eyes blind. At time Feast Dedication took place in Jerusalem winter Jesus was walking in temple courts Solomon's Colonnade where Jews gathered around him asked him how long will you keep us in suspense? If you are Messiah tell us plainly.' In response He pointed out that He did tell them but they do not believe works do name Father testify about Him yet they do not believe because they are not his sheep who listen to his voice know them give them eternal life never perish no one snatch them out Father's hand (John 10:19-30).

3rd Paragraph: After this discourse, Jesus claimed oneness with God Father 'I Father are one.' This led Jews pick up stones stone him again blasphemy claiming be God while merely man response pointed out works doing name Father bear witness Him yet if don't believe works least believe miracles so may know understand Father is in me I am in Father leading another unsuccessful attempt arrest Him then withdrew again region across Jordan where John had been baptizing first place many came to him believed there saying 'John performed no sign all that John said about this man was true.' (John 10:31-42).

John 10:1 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.

Jesus warns against false teachers who try to lead people away from the true faith. 1: We must guard against false teachers and cling to God's Word. 2: We must seek the truth and not be deceived by cunning words. 1: Jeremiah 29:11, "For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans for welfare and not for evil, to give you a future and a hope." 2: 1 Peter 5:8, "Be sober-minded; be watchful. Your adversary the devil prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour."

John 10:2 But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.

The passage talks about the shepherd who enters through the door to look after the sheep.

1. We are called to be faithful shepherds of our flock, protecting them with the same care that a shepherd does his sheep.

2. Following Christ means we must seek to be humble and gentle shepherds, leading the way with the same compassion and understanding that he has.

1. 1 Peter 5:2-3 “Be shepherds of God’s flock that is under your care, watching over them—not because you must, but because you are willing, as God wants you to be; not pursuing dishonest gain, but eager to serve; not lording it over those entrusted to you, but being examples to the flock.”

2. Psalm 23:1 “The Lord is my shepherd, I lack nothing.”

John 10:3 To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out.

The Good Shepherd calls His sheep by name and leads them out.

1. The Shepherd Who Knows Us By Name

2. Following the Shepherd's Call

1. Isaiah 40:11 He shall feed his flock like a shepherd: he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young.

2. Matthew 18:12-14 What do you think? If a man has a hundred sheep, and one of them has gone astray, does he not leave the ninety-nine on the mountains and go in search of the one that went astray? And if he finds it, truly, I say to you, he rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine that never went astray. So it is not the will of my Father who is in heaven that one of these little ones should perish.

John 10:4 And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.

The passage speaks of how Jesus leads His sheep and they recognize His voice and follow Him.

1: Jesus is the Good Shepherd who Leads and Cares for His sheep

2: The Voice of Jesus is Recognizable and Followed by His Sheep

1: Psalm 23:1, "The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want."

2: Matthew 11:28-30, "Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light."

John 10:5 And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.

People are not likely to follow those they do not know, as they are unfamiliar with their voice.

1. The Power of Familiarity - We are more likely to listen to and follow the people we know than those we don't.

2. The Importance of Knowing God - We should strive to know God more deeply so that we may follow His voice more closely.

1. Acts 2:42 - And they devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers.

2. John 8:32 - And you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.

John 10:6 This parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

Jesus gave a parable to the people, but they did not understand what He was saying.

1. The Parable of Jesus: Unveiling God's Word

2. How to Interpret Parables: Understanding the Meaning of Jesus' Words

1. Psalm 119:105-106: "Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path. I have sworn an oath and confirmed it, to keep your righteous rules."

2. Proverbs 2:1-5: "My son, if you receive my words and treasure up my commandments with you, making your ear attentive to wisdom and inclining your heart to understanding; yes, if you call out for insight and raise your voice for understanding, if you seek it like silver and search for it as for hidden treasures, then you will understand the fear of the Lord and find the knowledge of God."

John 10:7 Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep.

Jesus is the door to salvation for the sheep.

1. Jesus is the Gatekeeper to Eternal Life

2. The Power of Jesus as the Door to Salvation

1. Matthew 7:13-14 “Enter by the narrow gate. For the gate is wide and the way is easy that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many. For the gate is narrow and the way is hard that leads to life, and those who find it are few.”

2. 1 Peter 1:3-5 “Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! According to his great mercy, he has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, who by God's power are being guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.”

John 10:8 All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them.

The passage is about how Jesus' sheep did not listen to the thieves and robbers who came before Him.

1: We must be careful to listen only to God's voice and reject all false prophets.

2: We must be aware of who we are listening to and ensure that we are only listening to the one true voice of God.

1: Jeremiah 23:1-4 - "Woe be unto the shepherds that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture!"

2: Matthew 7:15-20 - "Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves."

John 13:29 For some of them thought, because Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor.

Some of Jesus' disciples thought that Judas had been instructed by Jesus to buy food and give to the poor for the upcoming feast.

2. The Cost of Discipleship - How following Jesus requires us to make sacrifices and live differently.

1. Matthew 6:19-21 - "Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal, but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal. 2: Jesus is worthy of our honour and praise. He is a model for us to follow.

1: Romans 8:28-30 “And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose. For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. And those whom he predestined he also called, and those whom he called he also justified, and those whom he justified he also glorified.”

Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air: they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? And which of you by being anxious can add a single hour to his span of life? And why are you anxious about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is alive and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you, O you of little faith? Therefore do not be anxious, saying, ‘What shall we eat?’ or ‘What shall we drink?’ or ‘What shall we wear?’ For the Gentiles seek after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them all.”

Whence then hath this man all these things? And they were offended in him. But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house.

However, not all possess this knowledge. But some, through former association with idols, eat food as really offered to an idol, and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. Food will not commend us to God. We are no worse off if we do not eat, and no better off if we do. But take care that this right of yours does not somehow become a stumbling block to the weak. Romans 1:25 Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.

Humans often prefer to worship created things rather than the Creator, which is not pleasing to God.

1: Our worship should be directed to God alone and not to created things.

2: We should put God first in all we do and not make idols of the things of the world.

1: Colossians 3:5 Put to death, therefore, whatever belongs to your earthly nature: sexual immorality, impurity, lust, evil desires and greed, which is idolatry.

2: James 4:4 You adulterous people, don’t you know that friendship with the world means enmity against God? Therefore, anyone who chooses to be a friend of the world becomes an enemy of God.

Romans 1:26 For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature:

God gave up the people of the world to their immoral desires, including the women who changed the natural use of sex to one that is against nature.

Romans 1:27 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet.

Men have abandoned their natural desires for women and have instead been consumed by their lust for other men, engaging in actions that are shameful and suffering the consequences of their sin.

Romans 1:28 And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient;

Romans 1:32 Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them.

God's judgment is clear: those who commit grave sins are worthy of death. They not only commit the sins themselves, but encourage and take pleasure in those who do the same.

1: God's judgment is certain and just; we must not engage in or encourage grave sin.

2: We must not take pleasure in the sins of others, for God's judgment is clear on the matter.

1: Psalm 119:128 - Therefore I esteem all thy precepts concerning all things to be right; and I hate every false way.

Romans 2 continues Paul's discourse on the sinful nature of humanity, emphasizing God's impartial judgement, the importance of deeds over heritage, and the true meaning of circumcision.

1st Paragraph: The chapter begins with Paul pointing out that those who pass judgment on others are without excuse because in doing so they condemn themselves, for they practice the very same things. He emphasizes that God’s judgment is based on truth and against those who do such things. He warns against presuming upon God’s kindness, patience, and forbearance, reminding readers that it is God’s kindness that is meant to lead them to repentance (Romans 2:1-4).

(Romans 2:17-21). He criticizes hypocrisy among Jews says real circumcision matter heart Spirit not letter His praise comes from God not people (Romans 2:28-29).

Romans 2:1 Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things.

Paul tells the reader that no one is exempt from judgment and condemns those who judge others when they do the same things.

James 1:13-15 – “Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man: But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed. Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.”

Romans 2:10 But glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile:

Everyone who does what is good will be rewarded with glory, honor, and peace, regardless of whether they are Jewish or Gentile.

1. James 1:22-25 (But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass: For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was. But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed.)

2. Matthew 7:24-27 (Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock: And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock. And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand: And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it.)

Romans 2:14 For when the Gentiles, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, having not the law, are a law unto themselves:

2. Matthew 28:19-20 - Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you.

Romans 2:21 Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal?

We must practice what we preach.

1: We must be careful to live out what we preach to others.

2: We should measure our own actions against the standards we set for others.

1: Luke 6:41-42 - "Why do you look at the speck of sawdust in your brother’s eye and pay no attention to the plank in your own eye? How can you say to your brother, ‘Brother, let me take the speck out of your eye,’ when you yourself fail to see the plank in your own eye?"

2: James 1:22-25 - "Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says. Anyone who listens to the word but does not do what it says is like someone who looks at his face in a mirror and, after looking at himself, goes away and immediately forgets what he looks like. But whoever looks intently into the perfect law that gives freedom, and continues in it—not forgetting what they have heard, but doing it—they will be blessed in what they do."

Romans 2:22 Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou commit sacrilege?

Romans 2:23 Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God?

Those who pride themselves on their obedience to the law of God yet break it, are dishonoring God.

1. We must remember that God's law is not something we can simply ignore. We must take it seriously and strive to keep it.

2. We must strive to live up to the standards of God's law, and not make a mockery of it by flouting it.

1. James 2:10-12 - For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.

2. Galatians 5:14 - For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

Romans 2:24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written.

The Gentiles blaspheme the name of God because of the actions of the Jews.

2. The importance of humility and recognizing our own imperfections.

1. James 2:14-17 - What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if someone claims to have faith but has no deeds? Can such faith save them? 15 Suppose a brother or a sister is without clothes and daily food. 16 If one of you says to them, “Go in peace; keep warm and well fed,” but does nothing about their physical needs, what good is it? 17 In the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead.

2. Philippians 2:3-4 - Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit. Rather, in humility value others above yourselves, 4 not looking to your own interests but each of you to the interests of the others.

Romans 2:25 For circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep the law: but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision.

Paul is emphasizing the importance of living by God's law, even when one has been circumcised.

1. Deuteronomy 10:12-13 - And now, Israel, what does the LORD your God require of you, but to fear the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, to love him, to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

2. The Importance of Keeping God's Law: A Study of Romans 2:27

1. James 2:10-11 - For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all. For he that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

2. Galatians 5:1-3 - Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage. Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing. For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law.

Romans 2:28 For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:

Paul is stressing that a person's true identity is not determined by their outward appearance, but rather by their inner faith.

1: Everyone is equal in the eyes of God and should be treated as such, no matter what their outward appearance may be.

2: We are all made in the image of God and should strive to live with a heart full of faith and love.

1: Galatians 3:28 - “There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.”

2: Colossians 3:11 - “Where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: but Christ is all, and in all.”

Romans 2:29 But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God.

Paul explains that true Jews are those who are circumcised in their hearts, not in the physical body, and their praise comes from God, not from people.

1. Our Faith Comes From God, Not From Men

2. The Necessity of an Inner Circumcision

1. Jeremiah 9:26 - "For all these things My hand has made, And all these things exist," declares the LORD. "But to this one I will look, To him who is humble and contrite of spirit, and who trembles at My word.

Romans 3 continues Paul's theological discourse on the universal sinfulness of humanity, both Jews and Gentiles, the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ, and the role of law in relation to faith.

1st Paragraph: The chapter begins with Paul addressing questions about the advantage of being a Jew and the value of circumcision. He asserts that Jews have been entrusted with the very words of God. Even if some were unfaithful, their unfaithfulness does not nullify God’s faithfulness (Romans 3:1-4). He then discusses human sinfulness in relation to God's righteousness, arguing that our unrighteousness serves to show off God’s righteousness more clearly (Romans 3:5-8).

2nd Paragraph: In verses 9-20, Paul concludes that all people are under sin, both Jews and Gentiles. He quotes several Old Testament passages to make his point about universal human sinfulness: 'There is no one righteous, not even one; there is no one who understands; there is no one who seeks God' (Romans 3:10-11). He asserts that 'all have sinned fall short glory God' law makes us conscious our sins but cannot make us righteous sight God (Romans 3:19-20).

3rd Paragraph: From verse 21 onwards, Paul introduces a new theme - justification by faith apart from works Law. Righteousness he says now comes through faith Jesus Christ all believe there no difference between Jew Gentile since all have sinned fall short glory God are justified freely by His grace redemption came Christ Jesus whom presented as sacrifice atonement through shedding His blood received through faith (Romans 3:21-25). This justification by faith upholds rather than nullifies Law because it shows how completely we need rely on grace salvation rather than our own ability keep Law perfectly (Romans 3:26-31).

2. The Power of God's Word: How the Oracles of God Changed History

1. Romans 9:4-5 - "They are Israelites, and to them belong the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the worship, and the promises. To them belong the patriarchs, and from their race, according to the flesh, is the Christ who is God over all, blessed forever. Amen."

2. Deuteronomy 4:5-8 - "See, I have taught you statutes and rules, as the Lord my God commanded me, that you should do them in the land that you are entering to take possession of it. Keep them and do them, for that will be your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the peoples, who, when they hear all these statutes, will say, 'Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.' For what great nation is there that has a god so near to it as the Lord our God is to us, whenever we call upon him? And what great nation is there, that has statutes and rules so righteous as all this law that I set before you today?"

Romans 3:4 God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.

Romans 3:5 But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? (I speak as a man)

Romans 3:25 Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God;

Paul declares that faith in Jesus does not do away with the law, but rather serves to uphold it.

2. "Living by Faith: How We Fulfill the Law"

1. Galatians 5:14-15, "For the whole law is fulfilled in one word: “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.” But if you bite and devour one another, watch out that you are not consumed by one another.

2. Matthew 5:17-20, “Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them. For truly, I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not an iota, not a dot, will pass from the Law until all is accomplished. Therefore whoever relaxes one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.”

Romans 4 continues Paul's discussion on justification by faith, using Abraham and David as examples to illustrate that righteousness is credited through faith, not works or adherence to the Law.

1st Paragraph: The chapter begins with Paul asking what we can say about Abraham, our forefather according to the flesh. He asserts that if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about but not before God. For Scripture says 'Abraham believed God it was credited him as righteousness' (Romans 4:1-3). Paul explains that workman's wages are due him as an obligation not a gift whereas person who does not work but trusts God justifies ungodly their faith is credited as righteousness (Romans 4:4-5).

2nd Paragraph: In verses 6-15, Paul brings in another example from the Old Testament - King David - who also speaks blessing those whom God credits righteousness apart from works saying 'Blessed are those whose transgressions are forgiven whose sins are covered blessed man whose sin Lord will never count against him' (Romans 4:6-8). He then discusses circumcision, arguing that it was a sign of the righteousness that Abraham had by faith while he was still uncircumcised. Therefore, he became father all believe though they uncircumcised so righteousness might be credited them also father circumcised who not only circumcised but also follow footsteps faith our father Abraham had before he was circumcised (Romans 4:9-12). The promise to Abraham and his offspring came through the righteousness of faith rather than adherence to Law.

3rd Paragraph: From verse 16 onwards, Paul elaborates on how this promise comes by faith so it may be guaranteed all of Abraham’s offspring—not only those under law but also those have faith like Abraham father us all sight Him whom believed—God gives life dead calls things exist were not against hope believed hope became father many nations according promise 'So shall your offspring be.' Without weakening his faith faced fact his body good dead since he about hundred years old Sarah's womb also dead did waver through unbelief regarding promise God strengthened his faith gave glory God being fully persuaded God power do what promised why 'it was credited him as righteousness.' These words 'it were written solely for his sake' they were written for us too will be credited us believe Him raised Jesus our Lord from dead delivered over death our sins raised life our justification (Romans 4:16-25).

Romans 4:1 What shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?

Abraham was a model of faith in the sight of God.

1. Genesis 15:6 - And he believed in the Lord; and he counted it to him for righteousness.

2. Hebrews 11:8-10 - By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went. By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise: For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

Romans 4:2 For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God.

Abraham was not justified by his works, but by his faith in God.

1. Faith in God Leads to Justification

2. Justification Does Not Come From Works

1. Hebrews 11:6 - "But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him."

2. James 2:24 - "Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only."

Romans 4:3 For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

Abraham was counted as righteous by God because of his belief and faith.

1. The Power of Faith - How faith in God can lead to incredible blessings.

2. God's Righteousness - Understanding what it means to be counted as righteous by God.

2. Hebrews 11:8 - By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

Romans 4:4 Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

Paul explains that those who work are rewarded not as grace, but as a debt owed to them.

1. The Value of Work: God Rewards Those Who Work Hard

2. The Grace of God: Learning to Live in Gratitude

1. Colossians 3:23-24 - "Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for human masters, since you know that you will receive an inheritance from the Lord as a reward. It is the Lord Christ you are serving."

2. Ecclesiastes 9:10 - "Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with all your might, for in the realm of the dead, where you are going, there is neither working nor planning nor knowledge nor wisdom."

Romans 4:5 But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

God credits righteousness to those who believe in Him and do not rely on their own works.

1. Faith: A Gift From God

2. What it Means to Justify the Ungodly

1. Ephesians 2:8-9 - For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast.

2. Romans 5:1 - Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Romans 4:6 Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,

Paul emphasizes the importance of faith and not works when it comes to righteousness before God.

Romans 4:9 Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.

Paul questions whether the blessing of righteousness comes only to those who are circumcised, or to both circumcised and uncircumcised believers.

1. All Are Equally Blessed By Faith in Jesus

2. The Power of Faith Over Circumcision

1. Galatians 3:6-9 - "Even as Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness. Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham. And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed. So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham."

2. James 2:14-17 - "What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him? If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food, And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit? Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone."

Romans 4:10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

Paul's letter to the Romans explains that justification is not based on circumcision, but on faith in Christ.

1. Faith is the Foundation of Justification

2. The Power of Uncircumcision

1. Galatians 2:15-16 – “We who are Jews by birth and not ‘Gentile sinners’ know that a person is not justified by the works of the law, but by faith in Jesus Christ. So we, too, have put our faith in Christ Jesus that we may be justified by faith in Christ and not by the works of the law, because by the works of the law no one will be justified.”

2. Ephesians 2:8-9 – “For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith—and this is not from yourselves, it is the gift of God— not by works, so that no one can boast.”

Romans 4:11 And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also:

Abraham was given the sign of circumcision as a sign of righteousness, even though he was not circumcised, so that all who believe in him, regardless of whether they are circumcised, might receive righteousness.

7 Understand, then, that those who have faith are children of Abraham."

2. James 2:23 - "And the scripture was fulfilled that says, “Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness,” and he was called God’s friend."

Romans 4:12 And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised.

Abraham was an example of faith for those who were not circumcised, as he had faith even before he was circumcised.

2. The Significance of Circumcision: A look at the spiritual implications of circumcision and how it relates to our faith.

1. Hebrews 11:8-9 - By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to the place which he would receive as an inheritance. He went out, not knowing where he was going.

2. James 2:21-23 - Was not Abraham our father justified by works when he offered Isaac his son on the altar? Do you see that faith was working together with his works, and by works faith was made perfect?

Romans 4:13 For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

The promise that Abraham and his offspring would be the heirs of the world was not granted through the law but through faith.

1. Faith is the key to receiving God's promises.

2. We must live righteously through faith to receive God's promises.

1. Hebrews 11:6 “And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him.”

2. Galatians 3:29 “And if you are Christ’s, then you are Abraham’s offspring, heirs according to promise.”

Romans 4:14 For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect:

The law cannot make someone an heir, faith is necessary for the promise of God to be fulfilled.

2. How Can We Rely on God's Promises?

1. Hebrews 11:1-3 - Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

2. James 2:14-17 - What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? Faith without works is dead.

Romans 4:15 Because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression.

The law brings wrath as no transgression can exist without a law.

Romans 4:17 (As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were.

Abraham was considered a father of many nations by God, despite being very old and his wife being barren, because of his faith and belief in God, who is able to bring life to the dead and make impossible things possible.

1. Faith in the face of adversity: Abraham's example of trusting God despite impossible odds.

2. The power of God: How God is able to make the impossible possible.

1. Hebrews 11:11-12 - "By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went. By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise."

2. Galatians 3:7-9 - "Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham. And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed. So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham."

Romans 4:18 Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, So shall thy seed be.

Paul's letter to the Romans is a reminder that despite seeming impossible, faith in Jesus can bring hope and renewal.

1: Never Give Up - We can trust in God and Jesus in the midst of impossible odds.

2: The Power of Faith - With faith, we can do anything that God has called us to do.

2: Isaiah 40:31 - But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.

Romans 4:19 And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sarah's womb:

Abraham, despite being a hundred years old and despite his wife Sarah's inability to bear children, had strong faith and did not consider the limitations of his physical body or Sarah's womb.

Romans 5 continues Paul's discourse on justification by faith, discussing the benefits of being justified by faith, the universality of sin, and the gracious gift of God through Jesus Christ.

1st Paragraph: The chapter begins with Paul asserting that having been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through him, we have gained access by faith into this grace in which we now stand. And we boast in the hope of the glory of God. Not only so, but we also glory in our sufferings because suffering produces perseverance; perseverance character; and character hope (Romans 5:1-4). He then emphasizes that this hope does not put us to shame because God’s love has been poured out into our hearts through Holy Spirit who has been given us (Romans 5:5).

2nd Paragraph: In verses 6-11, Paul explains how at just right time when we were still powerless Christ died for ungodly rarely will anyone die for a righteous person though for a good person someone might possibly dare to die but God demonstrates his own love for us in this while we were still sinners Christ died for us. He assures that since we have now been justified by his blood how much more shall be saved from God's wrath through him reconciled saved through his life rejoice in God through Lord Jesus Christ whom received reconciliation (Romans 5:6-11).

3rd Paragraph: From verse 12 onwards, Paul discusses how sin entered world death came as result spread all people because all sinned even before Law was given death reigned Adam Moses even over those did not sin breaking command as Adam did who pattern come (Romans 5:12-14). However he contrasts trespass one man led judgment condemnation many brought gift followed many trespasses brought justification reign life one man Jesus Christ resulted justification life all people just as result one trespass condemnation men so also result act righteousness was justification brings life men just as disobedience one man made many sinners so obedience one man made many righteous Law introduced increase trespass where sin increased grace increased all more so just as reigned death also grace might reign righteousness bring eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord (Romans 5:15-21).

Romans 5:1 Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ:

We have peace with God through Jesus Christ, who justifies us by faith.

Romans 6 delves into the implications of grace, discussing the believer's relationship to sin, baptism as a symbol of union with Christ in His death and resurrection, and the contrast between being slaves to sin versus slaves to righteousness.

1st Paragraph: The chapter begins with Paul addressing a potential misunderstanding about grace. He asks if we should continue in sin so that grace may increase. He firmly refutes this saying 'By no means!' We died to sin; how can we live in it any longer? He explains that those who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death and just as Christ was raised from dead through glory Father too may live new life (Romans 6:1-4).

2nd Paragraph: In verses 5-14, Paul elaborates on this union with Christ both in his death and resurrection. If we have been united with him like this in his death, we will certainly also be united with him in his resurrection. Our old self was crucified with him so that body ruled by sin might be done away with should no longer be slaves to sin because anyone dies has been set free from sin (Romans 6:5-7). Therefore he encourages not let sin reign mortal bodies obey its evil desires but rather offer ourselves God those alive from dead instruments righteousness (Romans 6:12-14).

3rd Paragraph: From verse 15 onwards, Paul discusses freedom from slavery to sin and becoming slaves of righteousness instead. He uses analogy slavery emphasize obedience leads either sin resulting death or obedience leading righteousness ultimately eternal life (Romans 6:15-16). He commends them for wholeheartedly obeying form teaching they were entrusted now having been set free from sin become slaves righteousness then urges them offer every part themselves as instrument wickedness but rather those alive God sanctification leading eternal life (Romans 6:17-19). The chapter concludes stating wages of sin is death but gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord contrasting outcomes depending whether one serves God or Sin (Romans 6:20-23).

Romans 6:1 What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

Romans 7 continues Paul's discourse on the Christian's relationship to the Law, discussing the believer's release from the Law through Christ, the function of the Law in arousing sinful desires, and a personal struggle with sin.

1st Paragraph: The chapter begins with Paul using marriage as an analogy to explain how believers are released from the law through Christ. Just as a woman is bound by law to her husband while he is alive but if he dies she is released from law regarding husband similarly believers died to what once bound us through body Christ so we belong another Him raised dead order bear fruit God (Romans 7:1-4). He asserts that while we were in realm flesh sinful passions aroused by law were at work us bore fruit death now however been released from law died what held us captive so serve new way Spirit not old way written code (Romans 7:5-6).

2nd Paragraph: In verses 7-13, Paul discusses how the Law made him aware of sin. He explains that without Law he would not have known what sin was for instance would not have known what coveting really was if Law had not said 'You shall not covet.' But sin seizing opportunity afforded commandment produced every kind coveting him apart from law sin dead once alive apart from law when commandment came sin sprang life died found very commandment supposed bring life actually brought death (Romans 7:7-10). Therefore, he concludes that it was sin seizing opportunity through commandment produced death making it utterly sinful beyond measure (Romans 7:11-13).

3rd Paragraph: From verse 14 onwards, Paul describes his own personal struggle with sin despite his desire do good evil right there him inner being delights God’s law but sees another work members waging war against mind making prisoner of law of sin at work within members. He cries out who will rescue this body death? Thanks be God delivers me through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then myself serve God’s law although my sinful nature serves laws of Sin (Romans 7:14-25). This highlights ongoing struggle between spirit flesh within believer illustrating need reliance upon grace power Holy Spirit overcome.

So speak and so act as those who are to be judged by the law of liberty."

2. Matthew 22:36-40 - “‘Teacher, which is the great commandment in the Law?’ And he said to him, ‘You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the Law and the Prophets.’”

1. Ephesians 5:22-24 - “Wives, submit to your own husbands, as to the Lord. For the husband is the head of the wife even as Christ is the head of the church, his body, and is himself its Savior. Now as the church submits to Christ, so also wives should submit in everything to their husbands.”

2. 1 Corinthians 7:39 - “A wife is bound to her husband as long as he lives. But if her husband dies, she is free to be married to whom she wishes, only in the Lord.”

Romans 7:3 So then if, while her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.

A woman is considered an adulteress if she is married to another man while her husband is still living, but she is free from that law if her husband is deceased.

2. The Freedom of Being Delivered from the Law

1. Galatians 5:13-15 - For you were called to freedom, brethren; only do not turn your freedom into an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another. For the whole Law is fulfilled in one word, in the statement, “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.”

And the second is like it: ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.”

Romans 7:13 Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.

For he who said, “Do not commit adultery,” also said, “Do not murder.” If you do not commit adultery but do murder, you have become a transgressor of the law. So speak and so act as those who are to be judged under the law of liberty.

Romans 8 is a powerful chapter in Paul's letter, discussing life in the Spirit, our status as children of God, the hope of future glory, and the assurance of God's love.

1st Paragraph: The chapter begins with Paul asserting that there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus because through Christ Jesus the law of the Spirit who gives life has set us free from law sin death (Romans 8:1-2). Those who live according to flesh have their minds set on what flesh desires; but those who live accordance with Spirit have their minds set on what Spirit desires (Romans 8:5). He assures that if by Spirit we put death misdeeds body will live all led by God’s children did not receive spirit slavery fall back into fear received spirit sonship whereby cry 'Abba Father' Holy Spirit himself testifies with our spirit we are God’s children if children then heirs—heirs of God co-heirs with Christ if indeed share his sufferings order may also share his glory (Romans 8:13-17).

3rd Paragraph: From verse 18 onwards, Paul discusses hope future glory creation waits eager expectation revelation sons God has been subjected frustration not its own choice hope will liberated from its bondage decay brought freedom glory children God ourselves groan inwardly eagerly wait adoption sonship redemption bodies this hope saved. Moreover he asserts intercession Holy Spirit weaknesses when we do not know what pray for intercedes us wordless groans everything works together good love called purpose nothing separate love Christ trouble hardship persecution famine nakedness danger sword overwhelming victory ours through him loved us convinced neither death nor life angels nor demons present nor future powers height depth anything else all creation will be able separate love God is in Christ Jesus our Lord (Romans 8:18-39). This offers a powerful message of assurance about Christian's eternal security in the love of God.

are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit.

People who are controlled by their sinful nature are focused on earthly desires, while those guided by the Spirit focus on spiritual things.

2. The Things That Matter Most: A Reflection on the Spirit and the Flesh

1. Colossians 3:2 - “Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth.”

2. Matthew 16:26 - “For what profit is it to a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul?”

Romans 8:6 For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.

The passage emphasizes the importance of having a spiritual mindset, as opposed to a carnal one, to experience life and peace.

1. Colossians 3:2 - Set your mind on things above, not on things on the earth.

2. Romans 12:2 - Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind.

Romans 8:7 Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.

The carnal mind is at odds with God and can never be subject to God's law.

1: We must submit our wills to God and seek to obey His law in order to draw near to Him.

2: We must not allow ourselves to be enticed by the desires of the flesh, but instead strive to keep our minds and hearts focused on God and His ways.

1: Philippians 4:8, "Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things."

2: Colossians 3:2, "Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth."

Romans 8:8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

Those who live according to the desires of the flesh cannot please God.

2. 1 John 2:15-17 - "Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever."

Romans 8:9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

The Spirit of God dwells in believers, and those without the Spirit of Christ are not of Christ.

2: While we face trials and tribulations in this life, we must keep our eyes on the prize of the glory that awaits us in the future.

Romans 9 is a complex chapter where Paul discusses God's sovereignty in choosing Israel, His righteousness in election, and the inclusion of the Gentiles in God's plan of salvation.

1st Paragraph: The chapter begins with Paul expressing his deep sorrow and unceasing anguish for his own people, the Israelites. He even wishes that he himself were cursed and cut off from Christ for their sake (Romans 9:1-3). He acknowledges the privileges given to them as adoption sonship divine glory covenants receiving law temple worship promises patriarchs human ancestry Christ who is God over all forever praised (Romans 9:4-5). However, he clarifies that not all who are descended from Israel are Israel nor because they are Abraham’s descendants are they all his children but 'In Isaac your offspring will be reckoned' (Romans 9:6-7).

2nd Paragraph: In verses 8-18, Paul explains God's sovereign choice in election using examples of Isaac over Ishmael and Jacob over Esau even before they were born or had done anything good or bad. This shows that it does not depend on human desire or effort but on God’s mercy (Romans 9:8-16). He further illustrates this by referring to Pharaoh whom God raised up to display His power and proclaim His name throughout earth thereby showing mercy whom wants hardens whom wants (Romans 9:17-18).

3rd Paragraph: From verse 19 onwards, Paul anticipates objections about fairness of God's sovereignty. He uses analogy potter clay say right object created 'Why did you make me like this?' when potter has right over same lump clay make one pottery noble purposes another common use (Romans 9:19-21). He then discusses how if God bore with great patience objects wrath prepared destruction what if did so make riches glory known objects mercy prepared advance glory us he called not only Jews but also Gentiles? As it is written 'I will call them my people who are not my people I will call her beloved was not beloved' 'It will happen place where was said you ‘You are not my people’ there they will be called ‘children living God’' concerning Israel hardening part happened until full number Gentiles come all Israel saved. 2. Acts 13:46 - "Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles."

Romans 9:7 Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, In Isaac shall thy seed be called.

This passage emphasizes that just because someone is a descendant of Abraham, it does not automatically make them a child of God. The promise of God to Abraham is fulfilled through Isaac.

1. The Promise of God to Abraham is Fulfilled through Isaac

2. Being Descendants of Abraham Does Not Automatically Make Us Children of God

1. Galatians 3:16, “Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ.”

2. Hebrews 11:17-19, “By faith Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Isaac: and he that had received the promises offered up his only begotten son, Of whom it was said, That in Isaac shall thy seed be called: Accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure.”

Romans 9:8 That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.

God's chosen people are not determined by physical lineage, but by those chosen through His promises.

1. The Children of Promise: Why We Are Chosen by God

2. Knowing Our Identity: Who We Are in Christ

1. Galatians 3:26-29 - For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

2. Ephesians 1:3-6 - In love he predestined us for adoption to sonship through Jesus Christ, in accordance with his pleasure and will.

Romans 9:9 For this is the word of promise, At this time will I come, and Sarah shall have a son.

God promised Abraham and Sarah a son at the right time and that promise was fulfilled.

2. Psalm 37:4 - Take delight in the Lord, and he will give you the desires of your heart.

Romans 9:10 And not only this; but when Rebecca also had conceived by one, even by our father Isaac;

God chose Rebecca and Isaac to be parents of two great nations.

1. God's plan is often difficult to understand, but we can trust that it is always good.

2. We can have faith that God has a plan for each of us, even when it doesn't make sense.

1. Genesis 25:21-26 - Rebecca conceives two sons.

2. Romans 8:28 - All things work together for God's good.

Romans 9:11 (For the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth;)

God's election is based on his purpose, not on works.

Romans 9:12 It was said unto her, The elder shall serve the younger.

The passage from Romans 9:12 states that the elder shall serve the younger.

1. God has a plan for everyone, no matter their age, and it is important to remember that the younger generation has just as much potential as the older.

2. Age is not a measure of importance or purpose in life, but instead a reminder that everyone can contribute to the greater good.

1. Proverbs 16:31 - Gray hair is a crown of glory; it is gained in a righteous life.

2. Philippians 2:3-4 - Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit. Rather, in humility value others above yourselves, not looking to your own interests but each of you to the interests of the others.

Romans 9:13 As it is written, Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated.

God chose to love Jacob and hate Esau before either of them were even born.

1. God's love is powerful and perfect, even when it is not understood

2. We must remember that God's plans are beyond our understanding and His love is greater than anything we could ever comprehend

1. Deuteronomy 7:6-8 - For you are a people holy to the Lord your God. The Lord your God has chosen you to be a people for his treasured possession, out of all the peoples who are on the face of the earth. It was not because you were more in number than any other people that the Lord set his love on you and chose you, for you were the fewest of all peoples

2. Jeremiah 31:3 - The Lord appeared to him from far away. I have loved you with an everlasting love; therefore I have continued my faithfulness to you.

2. James 2:13 - “For judgment is without mercy to one who has shown no mercy. Mercy triumphs over judgment.”

Romans 9:16 So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy.

Romans 9:19 Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? For who hath resisted his will?

God's sovereignty and power is limitless, and His wisdom is beyond human understanding.

1: We should accept God's will, trusting in His ultimate goodness, even when we don't understand why He allows certain things.

2: We must never question God's power and wisdom, but instead seek to understand His divine will with humility and reverence.

1: Isaiah 55:8-9 - “For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, declares the LORD. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts.”

2: Job 42:2 - “I know that you can do all things, and that no purpose of yours can be thwarted.”

Romans 9:20 Nay but, O man, who art thou that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?

Paul questions why humans would challenge God's decisions or authority.

Romans 9:21 Hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?

God is the potter and has the power to create vessels for honor and dishonor out of the same lump of clay.

Romans 9:28 For he will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousness: because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth.

God will finish what he starts and will do it in a righteous manner.

1. God's Promises - God is faithful to fulfill his promises, no matter the difficulty

2. Righteousness - We can trust God to always do what is right

1. Isaiah 46:10-11 - Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure.

2. 2 Peter 3:9 - The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

Romans 9:29 And as Esaias said before, Except the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed, we had been as Sodoma, and been made like unto Gomorrha.

God's mercy has preserved us from destruction, just as He preserved a remnant of Israel.

2. Joel 2:32 - "And everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved; for on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there will be deliverance, as the Lord has said, even among the survivors whom the Lord calls."

Romans 9:30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith.

God's righteousness is attained through faith, not works.

1: Faith is the key to acquiring God's righteousness.

2: The Gentiles have been able to obtain righteousness through faith, not works.

1: Ephesians 2:8-9 “For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast.”

2: Galatians 3:11 “Now it is evident that no one is justified before God by the law, for “The righteous shall live by faith.”

Romans 9:31 But Israel, which followed after the law of righteousness, hath not attained to the law of righteousness.

Israel did not attain righteousness through obedience to the law.

1: Obedience to God’s law is right, but it is not enough. We must also have faith in Jesus Christ to be saved.

2: Obeying God’s law does not earn us righteousness; only through faith in Jesus can we be saved.

1: Galatians 3:11 - “Now it is evident that no one is justified before God by the law, for ‘The righteous shall live by faith.’”

2: Ephesians 2:8-9 - “For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast.”

Romans 9:32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For they stumbled at that stumblingstone;

People failed to obtain righteousness through faith but instead tried to earn it through works of law. As a result, they stumbled at Jesus, who is the stumblingstone.

1. God's grace is a free gift, not something we can earn through good works.

2. Jesus is the cornerstone of our faith, and we should not let anything stand in the way of our relationship with Him.

1. Ephesians 2:8-9 - For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast.

2. 1 Peter 2:6-7 - Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded.

Paul quotes Isaiah 28:16 to describe Jesus Christ as a stumbling stone and rock of offense for those who reject Him, but for those who believe in Him, they will not be ashamed.

1. The Benefits of Believing in Jesus: Salvation and No Shame

2. The Consequences of Rejection: Stumbling and Offence

1. Isaiah 28:16 "Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste."

2. 1 Peter 2:6-8 "Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded. Unto you therefore which believe he is precious: but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner, And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were appointed."

Romans 10 continues Paul's discussion on the righteousness that comes from God, focusing on Israel's failure to attain this righteousness and the universal availability of salvation through faith in Christ.

1st Paragraph: The chapter begins with Paul expressing his heart's desire and prayer to God for the Israelites is that they may be saved. He acknowledges their zeal for God but notes it is not based on knowledge since they are ignorant of the righteousness that comes from God and sought to establish their own (Romans 10:1-3). He states Christ is culmination law so there may be righteousness everyone who believes (Romans 10:4).

2nd Paragraph: In verses 5-13, Paul contrasts the righteousness based on law which says 'Do this you will live' with righteousness based on faith which does not depend human effort but confession belief heart Jesus Lord raised dead resulting justification salvation. He emphasizes there no difference between Jew Gentile same Lord rich all call him 'Everyone who calls name Lord will be saved' (Romans 10:5-13).

3rd Paragraph: From verse 14 onwards, Paul discusses how faith comes from hearing message about Christ hence necessity preaching gospel. However he laments despite widespread proclamation gospel not all Israelites accepted good news as Isaiah says 'Lord who has believed our message?' Yet he asserts word near us even our mouths hearts message concerning faith proclaim if confess mouth 'Jesus Lord' believe heart God raised him dead will be saved (Romans 10:14-17). The chapter ends with Paul quoting Moses Isaiah show both Gentiles attained righteousness while Israel despite pursuing law did not reach it because pursued as if works rather than faith disobedient obstinate people (Romans 10:18-21). This further emphasizes his argument about importance faith over works achieving right standing before God.

1. Proverbs 9:10 - The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and the knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.

2. Colossians 2:3 - In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

Romans 10:3 For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

Ignorance of God's righteousness leads to a misguided attempt to establish one's own righteousness, instead of submitting to God's.

1: We must submit ourselves to God's righteousness and not rely on our own.

2: We must seek to understand God's righteousness so that we can more fully submit to it.

1: Philippians 3:9 - And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith.

The righteousness that comes from faith speaks of the futility of searching for Christ in a physical sense.

1: Believe in Christ and his power, not in our own abilities.

2: To ascend to Heaven is not necessary in order to have faith in Christ.

1: Hebrews 11:6 - But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

2: James 2:17-18 - Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone. Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

Romans 14:4 Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up: for God is able to make him stand.

He gives power to the weak, and to those who have no might He increases strength. Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall, but those who wait on the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint."

Romans 14:5 One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind.

Everyone should form their own opinions on how to best honor God.

2. Hebrews 12:1–2 Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

Romans 14:8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

In all stages of life, believers belong to the Lord - whether living or dying.

Romans 14:10 But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.

We should not judge or belittle one another as we will all stand before the judgement of Christ.

2. The Judgment Seat of Christ - Why We Should Not Judge One Another

1. Matthew 7:1-5 - Do Not Judge Others

2. James 4:11-12 - Do Not Speak Evil of One Another

Romans 14:11 For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.

Every person will one day acknowledge and bow before God.

1: We must live our lives in preparation for the day when we will bow before God.

2: Our words and actions should honor and glorify God now, so that when we bow before Him, we will have no regrets.

1: Philippians 2:10-11 - At the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Romans 14:13 Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in his brother's way.

The passage encourages us to not judge each other and to help our brothers and sisters.

Romans 14:14 I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean of itself: but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean.

Paul is convinced by Jesus that there is nothing inherently unclean, but whatever someone perceives as unclean is unclean to them.

1. The importance of respecting the beliefs of others and not judging them for their differences.

2. The power of our own beliefs and how they shape our thoughts and actions.

Romans 14:16 Let not then your good be evil spoken of:

Living according to God's will is more important than pleasing people.

1. Doing God's Will above All Else

2. Recognizing the Value of Others

1. Philippians 2:3-4 - Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves.

2. James 4:7 - Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

Romans 14:17 For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.

2. Matthew 25:31-40 - "When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit on his glorious throne. All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate the people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. He will put the sheep on his right and the goats on his left. Then the King will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father; take your inheritance, the kingdom prepared for you since the creation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me.' Then the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you something to drink? When did we see you a stranger and invite you in, or needing clothes and clothe you? When did we see you sick or in prison and go to visit you?' The King will reply, 'Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.'

1. Philippians 4:8-9 - Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. 2. Colossians 3:12-14 - Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassionate hearts, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony.

Romans 14:20 For meat destroy not the work of God. All things indeed are pure; but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence.

Those who are unsure of what to do should not act out of doubt, because anything done without faith is considered sin.

1. Let your faith guide your actions.

2. Doubt is the enemy of faith.

1. Hebrews 11:6 - "And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him."

2. James 1:5-8 - "If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask God, who gives generously to all without reproach, and it will be given him.
